Section 1- About our data

Anyone may obtain voter data from the Supervisor of Elections Office. We have an online request form from the "Data & Lists" section of the site.

Starting in early 2012, we converted our addresses to be congruent with the USPS standards for street name formats. Normally 90% of our bulk mailed pieces qualify for Non Profit postage rates and our addresses are compared to the Coding and Accuracy Support System (CASS) certification list. We use an internal 3rd party software application to quality control addresses entering our database, we check domestic absentee mailing addresses using this software and routinely verify our internal street list. We save thousands of dollars for the Leon County taxpayer annually by qualifying for this discount. The difference in First Class mail and Non Profit mail is normally around $0.35 per piece.

We occasionally receive questions about the availability of our voter data. Certain voters are eligible for record protection per Florida Statute, but normal voter data requests are not protected items and are available openly.

Section 3- How to get this data into Excel 2007

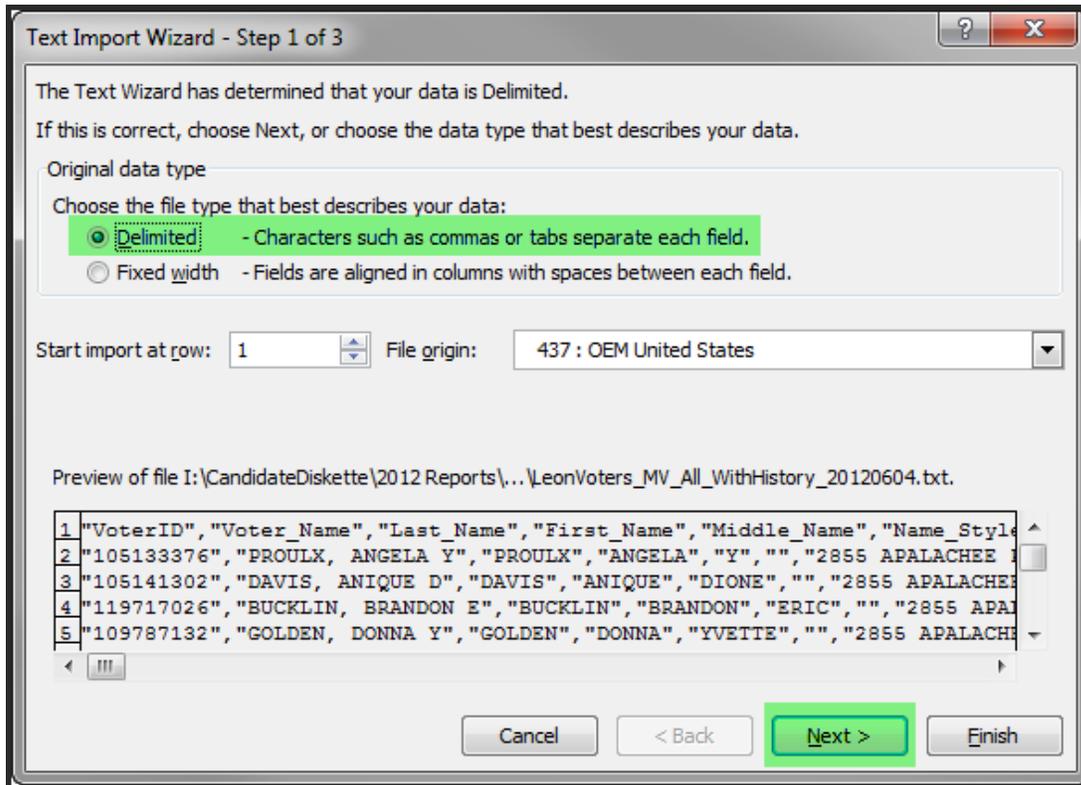

Excel is by far the most popular and widely used spreadsheet software on the market. This tutorial will focus in Excel 2007, but you can also download free software called Open Office that includes a spreadsheet module “Calc”. Open Office is an open source, free suite of software.

Versions of Excel previous to 2007 can only read approximately 66,000 records, so please be mindful of this limitation as it may affect your file. Excel 2003 will not give you an error that it did not load all the data.

- 1) Choose Open file from the Windows button. Change the drop down at lower right to “Text Files” to see the file. Select the voter data file. Choose Open at lower right.

2) Choose "Delimited" and Next.

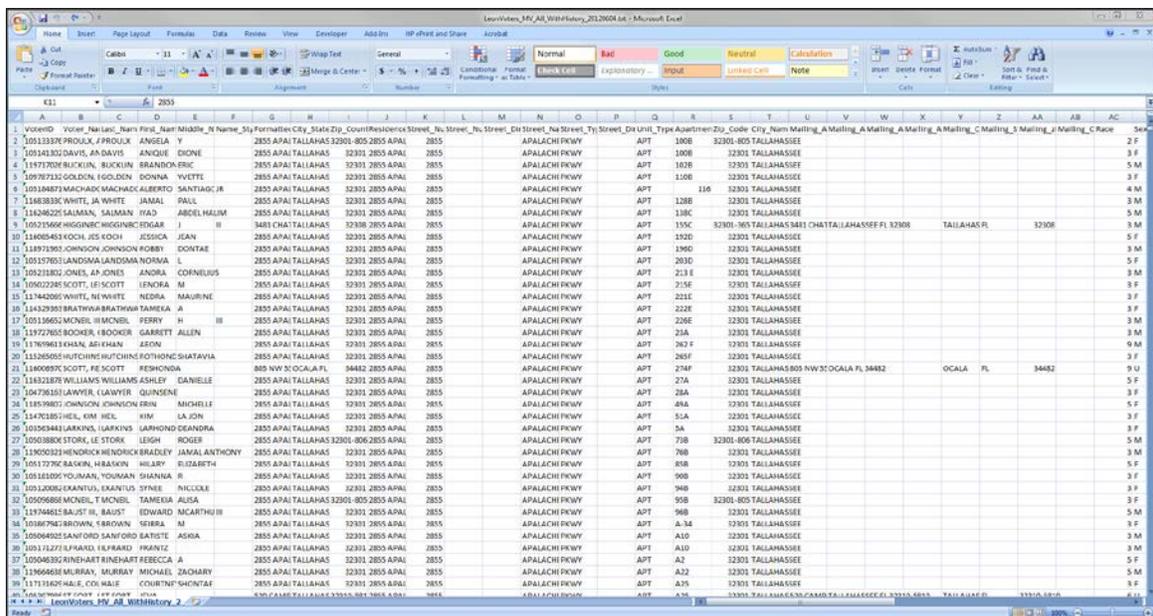

3) Choose "Comma" and Next.

4) Choose Text as the data type for the “VoterID” field, leave others. Choose Next

5) If you have successfully loaded the data, it will appear in the spreadsheet. You can save the data at any time now in Excel format.

Excel Tip

- You can use the Data filter tool to filter your data in 3 steps!

1. Select the Data tab
2. Select all the cells by clicking in the upper right cell
3. Click the Filter tool

Use the drop down arrows to select values.

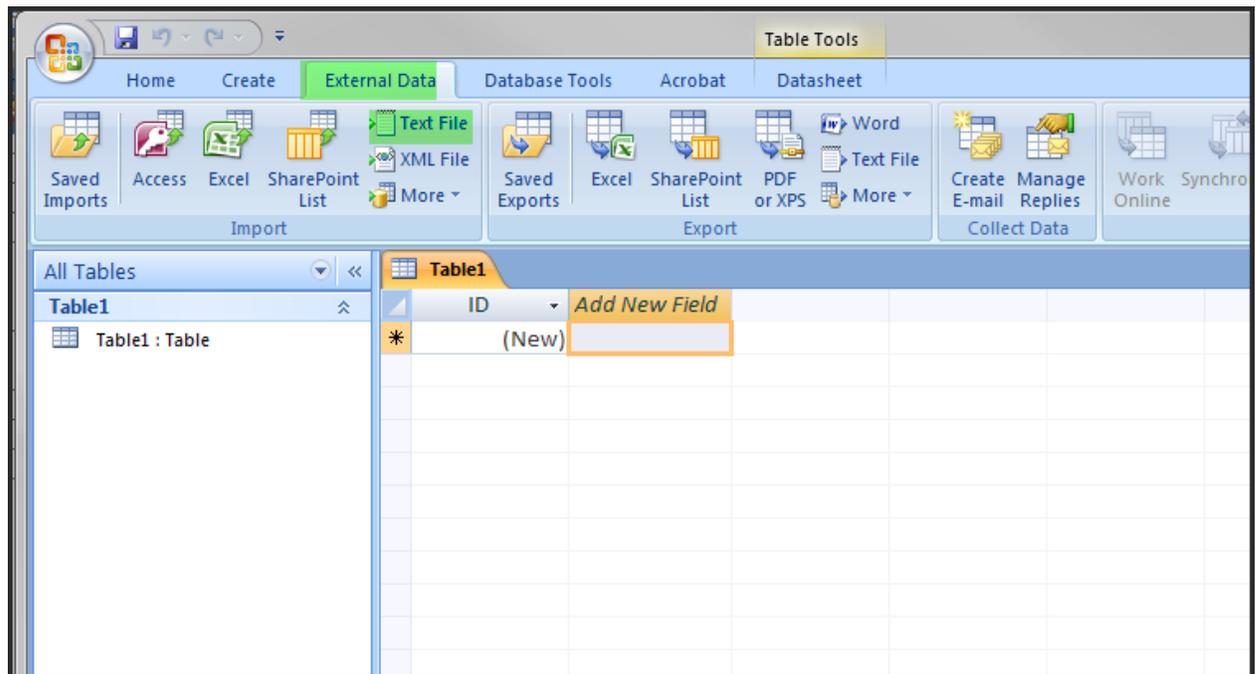

The screenshot shows the Microsoft Excel interface with the Data tab selected. The ribbon includes options like From Access, From Web, From Text, From Other Sources, Existing Connections, Refresh All, Edit Links, Sort, Filter, Clear, Reapply, Advanced, Text to Columns, Remove Duplicates, and Data Validation. The data table below has columns for VoterID, VoterID, VoterID, Last_N, First_N, Middle, Name, Format, City_St, Zip_Co, Reside, Street, and Street. Red boxes with numbers 1, 2, and 3 highlight the steps: 1. The Data tab, 2. The upper right cell (L1), and 3. The Filter button.

Section 4- How to get this data into Access 2007

Access is another popular Microsoft software product, though there are many other choices in this category. Access allows you to perform more powerful queries on the data and can be specifically manipulated to identify voters across multiple queries, match other data and remove duplicates from other sources.

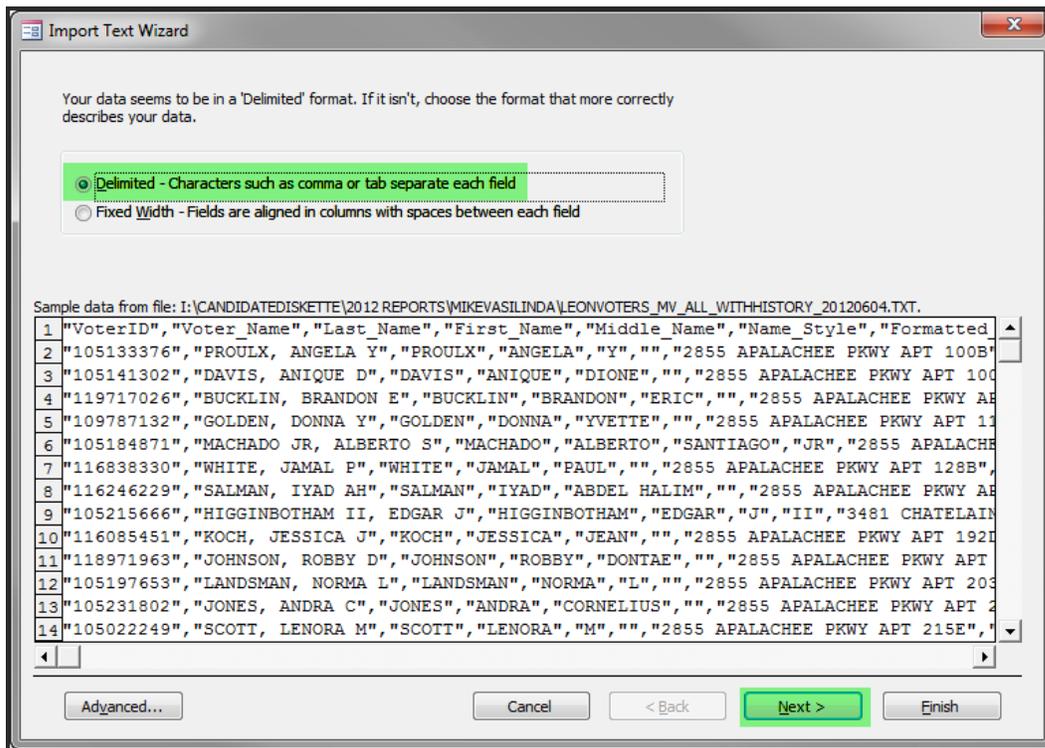

- 1) From an new access file, choose “External Data” and Text File.

2) First choose the location of the data, then open the file. Say OK to both dialogs once completed.

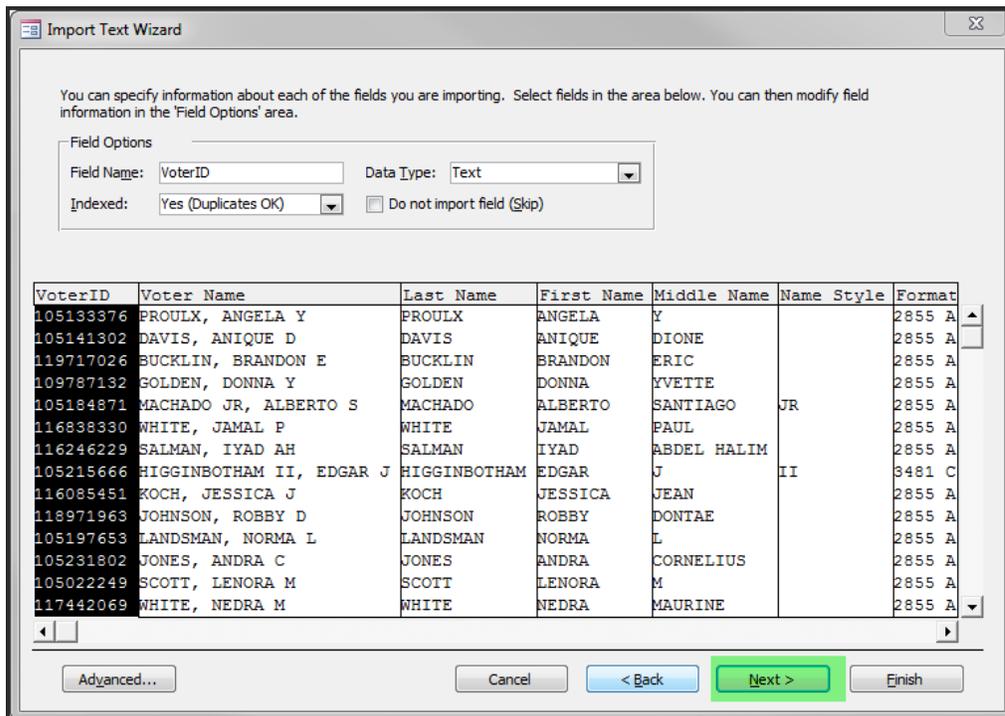

3) Choose Delimited, then Next.

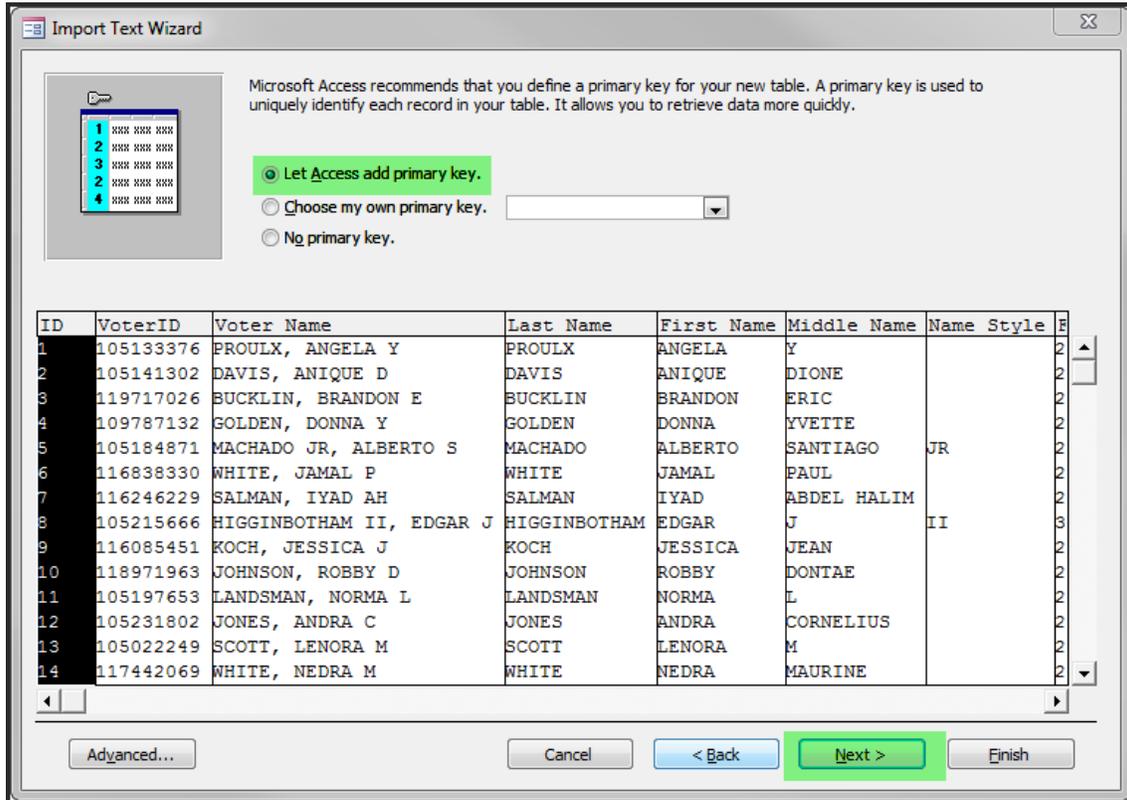

- 4) Choose Comma, check the box for “First Row Contains Field Names”, then Next.

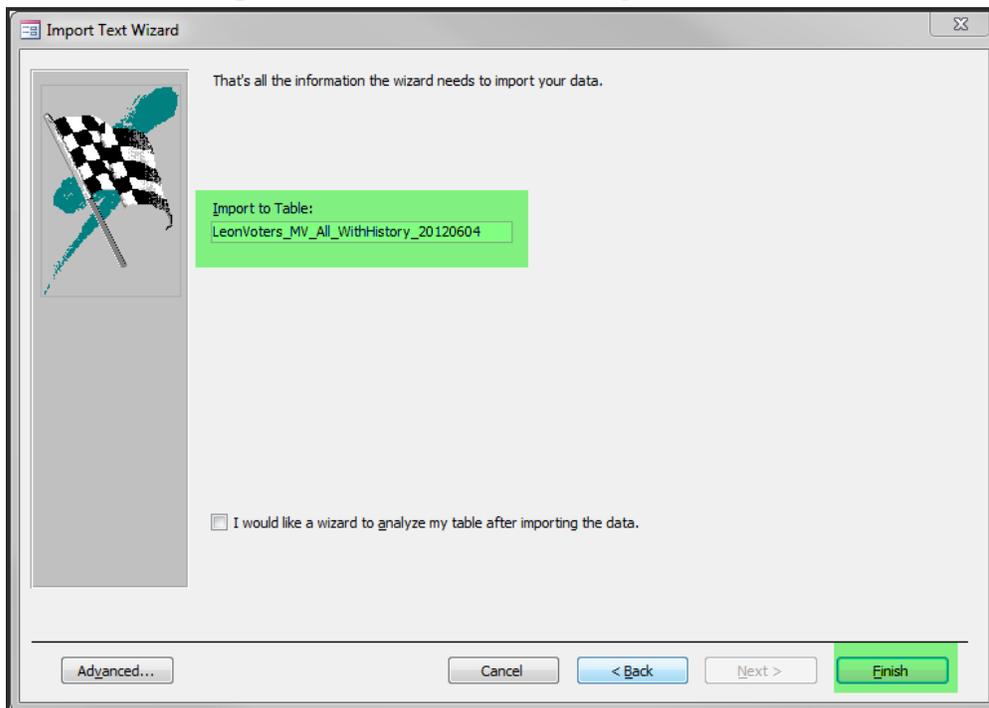

- 5) Accept values in this screen without changing them, Next.

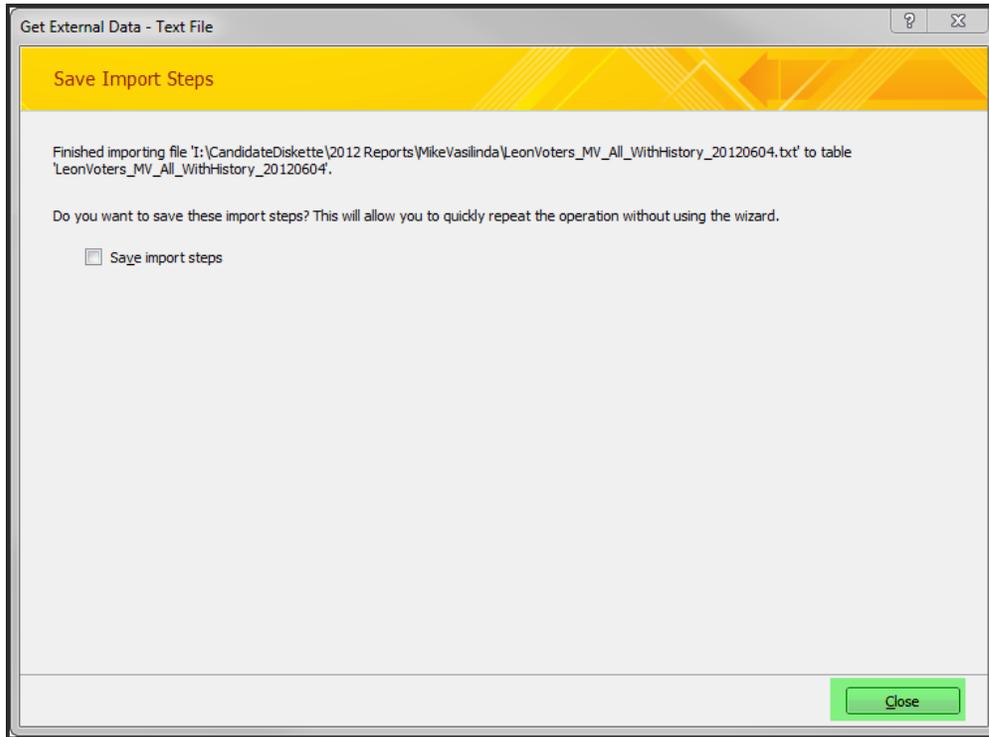

6) Choose Let Access add primary key, Next.

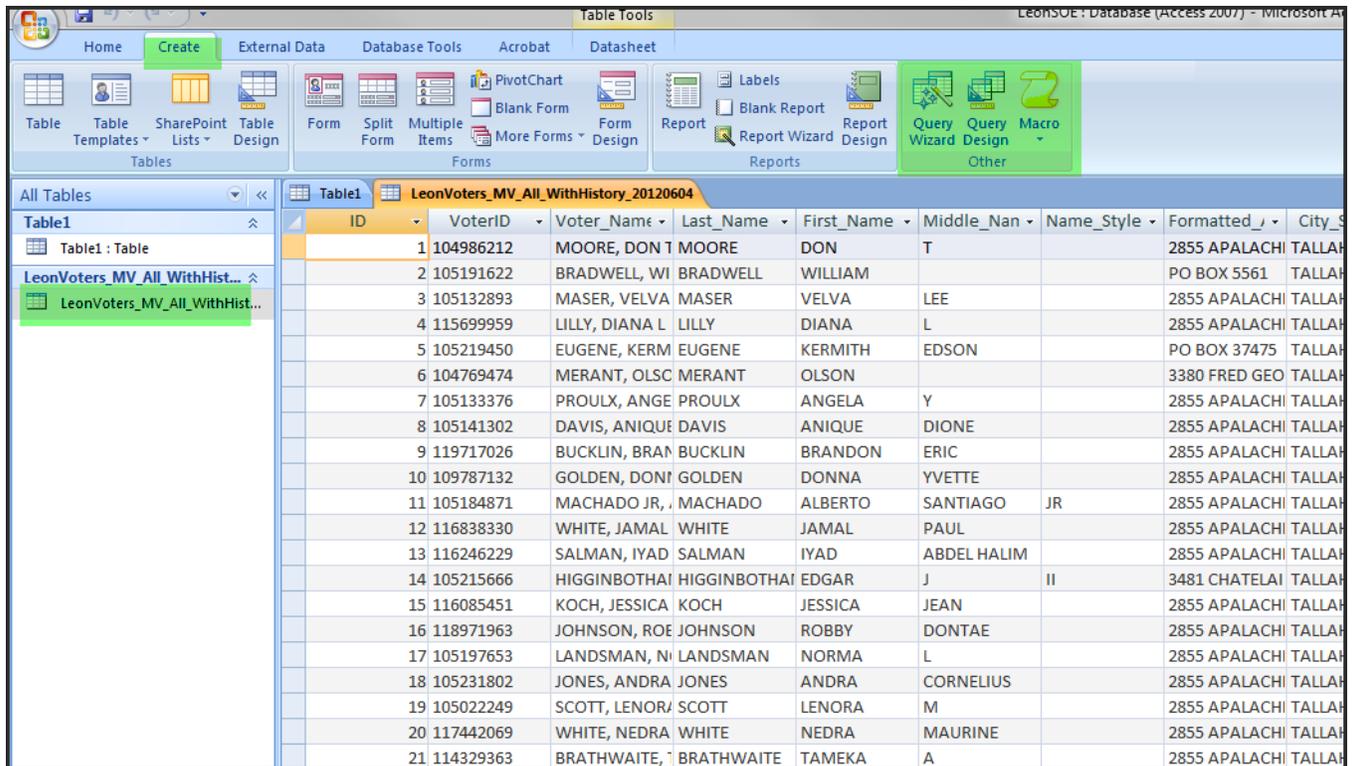

7) Choose to accept the file name, or change it, then Finish.

8) Choose Close.

9) Choose your table on the left, then the Create tab allows for query creation.

Section 5- Maps and other resources

Our website has a Live Map accessible from www.leonvotes.org/map. The site utilizes Adobe Flash, so be aware it will not work with iPhones and iPads currently.

The site includes precincts, districts, polling locations, Early Voting sites and branch registration sites. Previous precincts from 2010 and districts as they were before redistricting in 2011/2012 are also available in the map. You can search for our content using the search tool.

We have an online Voter Data Order Form, a Map Order Form and other resources from the Data & Lists section of the website.

You can access past election results from our website as well as find other helpful links at any time.

As always, if you have any questions about our data and products, contact us at:
