Be Creative

@ YOUR LIBRARY

Students, ages 12 and younger, are invited to Join us for an exciting summer reading program. Registration begins Friday, May 29, 2009 at any Leon County Public Library.

Registration includes information about summer activities in and out of the library. Each week features a new activity sheet with fun, free things to do.

On August 1, 1:00 – 3:00, we invite you to an "Art Show" reception where all participants may show off one of their creative projects. Art will be on display during the month of August.

Happy Reading!

Express Yourself @ your Library

Teens, ages 13-18, have an expressive summer! Join in our Teen Summer Library Program "Express Yourself @ Your Library" - pick up an activity sheet for June and for July.

Youth Services hosts "Teens @ 2 on Tuesday" or T2T, with Rock Band, Dance Dance Revolution, Wii, a karaoke machine, and numerous board games.

Check the 'Teen's Page' and 'Teen Happenings!' calendar on our website at www.leoncountylibrary.org for more activities, including movies.

Adults may also participate in our summer reading program this year. Activity Sheets are available in June and in July. Stop by the reference desk to sign up and get your activity sheet after May 29.

Nationwide Contest: Season 4 of Step Up to the Plate @ your library® invites you to answer trivia questions centered around multiculturalism in baseball. People of all ages are encouraged to use the print and electronic resources available at their library to answer a series of trivia questions designed for their age group (10 and under, 11-13, 14-17 and 18 and over) and inspired by the history and diversity of our national pastime. Questions are available in both English and Spanish.

One grand-prize winner will receive a trip for two in October to the Hall of Fame's World Series Gala event in Cooperstown, N.Y., including a behind-the-scenes tour of the library and archives.

Playbooks are available at www.ala.org/baseball When registering, use "LeRoy Collins Leon County Public Library" as the library name.

President Barack Obama on Parent Involvement:

"In the end, there is no program or policy that can substitute for a mother or father who will attend those parent-teacher conferences, or help with homework after dinner, or turn off the TV, put away the video games, and read to their child. I speak to you not just as a President, but as a father when I say that responsibility for our children's education must begin at home."
